

Coloured Pencils

WHICH TYPE?

Wax Pencils

Gum arabic binder holds pigment together in the lead core

Artist grade have less binder and more pigment to produce more vibrant colours

Less messy than traditional soft pastels

Can be used with wax based pencils

Smear easily and need a fixative

Don't blend together as well as traditional coloured pencils

Wax Based Pencils

Click on the image to buy.
10% discount for new customers

Oil Pencils

Gum arabic binder holds pigment together in the lead core

Artist grade have less binder and more pigment to produce more vibrant colours

Less messy than traditional soft pastels

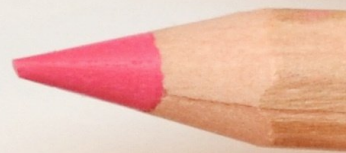

Can be used with wax based pencils

Smear easily and need a fixative

Don't blend together as well as traditional coloured pencils

Oil Based Pencils

Click on the image to buy.
10% discount for new customers

Watercolour Pencils

Gum arabic binder holds pigment together in the lead core

Artist grade have less binder and more pigment to produce more vibrant colours

Less messy than traditional soft pastels

Can be used with wax based pencils

Smear easily and need a fixative

Don't blend together as well as traditional coloured pencils

Watercolour Pencils

Click on the image to buy.
10% discount for new customers

Pastel Pencils

Gum arabic binder holds pigment together in the lead core

Artist grade have less binder and more pigment to produce more vibrant colours

Less messy than traditional soft pastels

Can be used with wax based pencils

Smear easily and need a fixative

Don't blend together as well as traditional coloured pencils

Pastel Pencils

Click on the image to buy.
10% discount for new customers